

Strategies to Collaborate with School Day Staff

- Email about students who need more assistance.
- Discuss in the division department levels, Math, etc.
- Discuss at grade level meetings, 6th grade, etc.
- Send out surveys and talk in the above meetings.
- Individual data sheet with information to discuss with groups or students that came from school day teacher.
- Ask for work samples from teachers or SPED about students in program.
- Pre and Post survey that targets behavior, etc. from school day teacher.
- Individual meetings targeting attendance behavior.
- Meet with principals regularly.
- Do staff development meetings 30 minutes with regular day teachers.
- STEM Program – open to before and after (Partner with Southside Community College) Teachers, Parents, and Community together.
- Email and one-on-one to regular school day staff to see what students in progress need help with.
- Progress Report/Communication log.
- Come to staff meetings.
- Principal (No 1) On Board with Program.
- Program tutors collaborate with school day teachers.
- Professional Staff Development
  - What 21st Century is
  - How they can participate
  - Slides of program activities
- How can 21st staff can help you.
- Show appreciation
- Google.doc (Share)
- Calendars/Agendas in the beginning of Program.
- Inform regular day teachers who is enrolled in the program.
- Coordinators attend school improvement meetings and parent/teacher conferences.
- Email your staff and build a relationship with them. How was your day? Etc.
- Share stories about students with regular day teachers (Good News)
- Community Support